

NON MEMBER MIDI SYSTEM EXCLUSIVE ID APPLICATION

The MIDI Manufacturers Association issues System Exclusive ID numbers to MIDI manufacturers worldwide, except for Japan. These ID numbers allow manufacturers to uniquely identify their products when communicating product-specific data via MIDI protocol.

The MMA procedures for the assignment of System Exclusive ID numbers are designed to prevent conflicts and incompatibilities. Each manufacturer is assigned a unique number, which will be annually renewable. These numbers are not transferable nor assignable without MMA approval.

The MIDI 1.0 Detailed Specification describes all of the System Exclusive messages, as well as all other MIDI messages that a manufacturer may need to know to maintain industry compatibility. Technical assistance is available to MMA members via an assigned Tech Board representative.

The MMA maintains a database of every assigned and unassigned System Exclusive ID number. Companies that are known to be producing products using their ID may be listed on the MMA web site (www.midi.org) along with a link to their company web site.

Description of Products

As an authorized representative of the Applicant (above) I hereby request that we be assigned a MIDI System Exclusive ID number. We understand and agree to the terms for assignment and use as listed above, and further agree that we will publish implementation charts and guides as necessary to document and describe our use of System Exclusive messages in our products, and provide said documentation to the MMA in a reasonable and timely manner upon request. I have enclosed payment in the amount of $240.00, which is the annual fee for this calendar year, and agree to pay the then-current fee in each calendar year during which we manufacture any products that use our Manufacturer ID. We understand that our ID will be revoked for failure to pay the annual fee.
